The Conference Includes:

- 20 hours of online sessions
- Access to all case studies and other reference materials before the conference, so the sessions are a time to talk and think together with others about the work
- Meet others in the open lounge for an hour before and after the day's sessions, and use a private breakout room if you wish
- See who is participating on the conference profile wall and use the platform to message them
- CPD certificate
- The conference is in English but multiple languages are spoken by our members

Immerse yourself in the professional community for five days

- Bring your experience and learn from peers
- Meet Dialogue practitioners from across the globe
- Connect with members of the Academy
- Find out about Academy activities
- Acknowledge our friend and colleague David Kantor who died earlier this year

Discover how the field of Professional Dialogue is advancing
